

MR. JOHN MORTON DIES SUDDENLY

This Well-Known Citizen Stricken in His Office.

HIS CAREER AS A FINANCIER

Had Been Connected With Banking and Other Institutions from Early Manhood—Model Citizen and Devout Christian—His Funeral.

Mr. John Morton, one of the best known banking men in Richmond, a model citizen and a zealous and consecrated Christian, died suddenly yesterday morning in the office of the Virginia Trust Company in the Planters Bank building, Twelfth and Main Streets.

Death was due to heart failure. Mr. Morton had suffered from an affection of the heart for many years. He had a severe attack about a week ago, but after recovering from it he remarked to several friends that he had never felt better in his life.

Mr. Morton entered his office at the bank shortly before nine o'clock yesterday morning, greeting those he met in his usual cheerful manner. A few minutes later a groan was heard to come from his office, and Mr. John P. Quarles ran into the room, horrified to find Mr. Morton prostrated upon the floor, gasping for breath. Medical assistance was hastily summoned, but the stricken man had breathed his last before a physician arrived.

usual cheerful manner. A few minutes later a groan was heard to come from his office, and Mr. John P. Quarles ran into the room, horrified to find Mr. Morton prostrated upon the floor, gasping for breath. Medical assistance was hastily summoned, but the stricken man had breathed his last before a physician arrived.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Mr. Morton was born in this city June 16, 1847, and at the time of his death was in his fifty-fifth year. His father was Mr. John B. Morton, for many years cashier of the Merchants Bank and a well known financier. From him the son inherited a taste and aptitude for finance, and at an early age developed marked ability.

At the breaking out of the war, Mr. Morton, although not out of his teens, became a member of the home defense guard. Later he joined the Confederate territorial corps, and proved a valuable soldier. At the close of the war he determined to embark in journalism, for which he had decided talent, and became connected with the staff of the Richmond Enquirer during the editorship of Mr. E. M. Smith.

Mr. Morton leaves two brothers, Messrs. O. S. Morton and D. V. Morton both connected with banking institutions here, and one sister, Mrs. W. E. Dibrill. Mr. Morton was married to the late Mrs. Elizabeth Morton, died several years ago. She was survived by several children to whom Mr. Morton was greatly attached.

In the death of Mr. Morton the church, financial and commercial communities of the Richmond sustain a loss that is irreparable. His life was devoted to the interest of others, and his self-sacrifice for those around him endeared him to all his acquaintances and many who knew of him only through his goodness. His after life was never married, but spent his home life with his family, where he was a noble son, a thoughtful brother, ever ready to do anything to make his home circle happy.

ACTIVE IN CHURCH WORK.

Mr. Morton entered with his whole heart into church work, and the Methodist Church in this city and State has lost one of its strongest sustainers. He was a member of Centenary Church, this city; chairman of the Official Board of Stewards of Centenary, and at the time of his death was superintendent of the Sunday school. He was connected with every society in the congregation, and was also vice-president of the Richmond Orphan Society. To all of these he was ever faithful, and his hours of labor in their behalf occupied the time outside of his business. He was retiring in his endowments, never aspiring to the offices which he so ably filled, but his worth as a Christian man was known to all, and the church sought his aid in furthering its welfare. He accepted knowing that it was a duty for him.

In his business Mr. Morton was scrupulously correct in all transactions, and his manner of dealing with those about him was ever pleasant and cordial.

The officers of the trust company this morning could not restrain their grief over his sudden death and the loss of such an estimable associate. He was lauded by them for his many qualifications as a financier.

FUNERAL TO-MORROW.

Mr. Morton's remains were taken from the scene of his death to the undertaking establishment of L. T. Christian and later removed to the home of his sister, Mrs. Dibrill, No. 20 South Third Street. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from Centenary Church. Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor, the pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor. The selection of the pall-bearers has not been completed and they will be announced later.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL TO ATTEND.

The teachers and scholars of Centenary Church Sunday-school will meet in the Sunday-school room Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and attend the funeral of Mr. Morton in a body.

The Sunday-school hour Sunday morning will be given up to a memorial service.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Virginia Trust Company will be held this morning at 11 o'clock, at the office.

MYSTERY OF THE CLOTHES.

Guesdorf Taylor's Mother Here to Investigate—Identifies Garments.

Susan Taylor, of Baltimore, the mother of Guesdorf Taylor, the colored youth whose clothes were found near the foot of Oak Street last Monday, came to see Captain Hulce, of the Third Police District, yesterday. The woman expressed the Captain as being respectable and worthy, and brought him a creditable letter from the chief of the detective force of Baltimore. She was shown the clothes of the boy who was thought to be her son, and at once picked out a number of pieces, saying she was confident they belonged to her son. She has not heard from him for some time, and then he was with relatives of hers at Pleasant Hill, Md., and she was told that he was on his way to find out, if she could, how her son's clothes came to be in a branch on the outskirts of Richmond. She will return to this city to-day and give what information she has to Captain Hulce. As soon as the clothes are identified, the name and address of the mother of the owner of them learned, Captain Hulce wrote to that address. The colored woman came in response to that letter.

SENATE DEFEATED DRASTIC MEASURE

amendment and explained the necessity for the scamen's clause as a measure of protection to American sailors. The amendment prevailed, 47 to 23.

Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, proposed an amendment applying the exclusion to Chinese "not citizens of the United States," which was agreed to after some debate.

Mr. Dillingham proposed an amendment admitting "not to exceed five good faith representatives of each regularly established Chinese wholesale house." It was lost, 33 to 57.

Mr. Quay proposed an amendment that the exclusion shall not apply to "Chinese Christians or Chinese, who assisted in the defense or relief of the foreign legations at Peking Cathedral in Peking in 1900." The amendment was lost.

WAS UNNECESSARY.

Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, then offered his substitute extending the present exclusion law. He said the United States was committed to the policy of exclusion, and any suggestion that Senators opposing the bill were seeking to break down the exclusion policy was gratuitous and without foundation. Mr. Platt said the objections to the bill were that it was unnecessary; it was offensive to China at a time when we sought her good will; it improperly enacted treasury regulations as law.

An amendment by Mr. Mallory, adding to the Platt substitute the sailors' clause, was defeated—23 to 55.

An amendment by Mr. Cockrell was agreed to, that the provisions of the substitute should not apply to Chinese coming to participate in expositions, etc.

Mr. Mitchell, of Oregon, offered as an amendment to the substitute several sections of the original bill providing for taking out Chinese certificates in our insular possessions, and amendments for that purpose were unexpectedly carried by the close vote of 41 to 40.

THE VOTE.

The decisive vote was then taken on the substitute proposed by Mr. Platt extending the present exclusion law, and this prevailed—48 to 33 as follows:

Yeas—Allison, Beveridge, Blackburn, Burnham, Burrows, Burton, Clapp, Clark (Wyoming), Cockrell, Cullom, Deboe, Delahunt, Dillingham, Doolittle, Elkins, Foraker, Frye, Gallinger, Gurnea, Gibson, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Hawley, Henry, Keane, Kearns, Kittredge, McComas, McCumber, McLaughlin (South Carolina), McMillan, Millard, Morgan, Nelson, Pettus, Platt (Connecticut), Platt (New York), Pritchard, Proctor, Quarles, Quay, Scott, Spooner, Stewart, Warren, Wellington, Wetmore—48.

Nays—Bacon, Bailey, Bard, Bate, Berry, Carmack, Clark (Montana), Clay, Culberson, Fairbanks, Foster (Louisiana), Foster (Washington), Harris, Heffelford, Jones (Kansas), Jones (Nevada), Lodge, McLaughlin (Mississippi), Mallory, Martin, Mitchell, Money, Patterson, Penrose, Perkins, Rawlins, Simmons, Simon, Tamm, Teller, Tillman, Turner, Vest—33.

Before the final vote was taken on the passage of the substitute bill, Mr. Hoar gave notice that he would vote against the measure, and in this connection he made earnest protest against the principle of exclusion. He believed that the thing in the way of exclusion could be accomplished without involving the principle of striking at a particular class or race. Holding as he did that every soul had its rights, and these rights were not dependent upon race, he recorded his protest against this measure.

In the House.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—As the passage of the Cuban reciprocity bill, the friends of that measure won a substantial victory in the House to-day by carrying a motion to close the general debate on Friday at 3 o'clock. The vote was 153 to 123. Thirty-three Republicans voted against the motion, but the defection was offset by 32 Democrats who voted with the great body of Republicans for it. The strength of the Republican opposition to the bill, judged by this vote, has decreased since the vote was taken on the motion to refer the bill, when the vote stood 167 to 80.

Among the Democrats who voted for the motion were: Messrs. Adamson, of Georgia; Bankhead, of Alabama; Bartlett, of Georgia; Bowie, of Alabama; Bradley, of Georgia; Burnett, of Alabama; Candler, of Mississippi; Clayton, of Alabama; Elliott, of South Carolina; Fox, of Mississippi; Griggs, of Georgia; Henry, of Mississippi; Howard, of Georgia; Johnson, of South Carolina; Klutz, of New York; Lever, of South Carolina; McLoud, of Mississippi; Pough, of South Carolina; Scarborough, of South Carolina; Taylor, of Alabama; Thompson, of Alabama; Underwood, of Alabama; Wiley, of Alabama; Williams, of Mississippi.

NEGRO CONGRESS.

(By Associated Press.)

Southern Negroes Will Discuss Education and Lynching.

(By Associated Press.)
GALVESTON, TEXAS, April 15.—It is said that there will be about six hundred delegates at the Southern Negro Congress which will convene in this city July 1-5. Among them will be some of the most prominent negroes of the Southern States. They will be appointed by the governors of the respective States, ten from each Congressional District, and five from each of the States that will be represented.

The object of the convention is to create a better feeling between the races and to foster any move for the uplifting of the negro race. The chief matters to be discussed will be the importance of education, the questions of outrages and lynching and the negro in politics.

Charged Mob Repeatedly.

(By Associated Press.)
BRUSSELS, April 15.—A dynamite cartridge exploded during the day on the railroad track near Arlon. The explosion badly damaged the railroad bridge, but traffic was not interrupted. The cause of the explosion is being investigated. A detachment of Lancers was compelled to repeatedly charge mob, and several people were injured.

The Great Dismal Swamp.

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of malaria germs. So low wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malaria and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byesville, O., "but Electric Bitters acted as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. ## A UNITED STATES SENATOR Says Pe-ru-na, the Catarrh Cure, Gives Strength and Appetite.

Hon. W. N. Roach, Ex-United States Senator from North Dakota.

Hon. W. N. Roach, ex-United States Senator from North Dakota, personally endorses Peruna, the great catarrh cure and tonic. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Company, at Columbus, Ohio, written from Washington, D. C., Senator Roach says:

"Persuaded by a friend I have used Peruna as a tonic, and I am glad to testify that it has greatly helped me in strength, vigor and appetite. I have been advised by friends that it is remarkably efficacious as a cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—W. N. Roach, Larimore, North Dakota.

No other remedy can take the place of Peruna.

Mr. Ed. J. Makinson, contractor and builder, 610 Grand Block, Wabash Street, St. Paul, Minn., says:

"Many doctors have told me that the treatment of the catarrh specialties, but it is within the reach of every person in this land. Peruna can be bought at any drug store, and it is a remedy without equal for catarrh in all forms. Coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all climatic diseases of winter.
